

Dedicated to moving the Escrow/Settlement industry forward

American Escrow Association

Presenting part II of our 2010 Webinar Series

Dancing with National Events

March 16, 2010 & March 18, 2010: 1 hour

“How Politics, Policy and the Current Economy are Converging on you, the Settlement Agent”

Presenter: Art Davis, AEA Washington DC Representative since 1992

April 8, 2010 & April 13, 2010: 2 hours

“The New GFE & HUD—How it affects your desk”

A review of the new RESPA rules and the practical implementation. We will review what has changed this year and how to prepare a HUD to be in compliance with regulations.

Presenters: Colorado Escrow Officers—Kathy Sullivan, CTIS, SCREC, SCLC
& Rebecca Lewis, CREC

Sign up for one or both classes and pick your date.

Register online at www.a-e-a.org

All events begin at 11:00am Pacific Standard Time

$25.00 per event

For further information, visit American Escrow Association 's website – www.a-e-a.org

About the Sponsor: American Escrow Association is the national association of settlement agents. On the national level, AEA is proactive on behalf of professionals conducting all types of settlement practices throughout the United States. Our goals are to further the knowledge and professionalism of the settlement agent through education and to, also, educate and advise decision makers at the national level on issues of consequence to the settlement industry as a whole.